

Are we gonna be the ones to act?

Music: Nicolas Kristoffersen

Lyrics: Nicolas Kristoffersen

G / D / C / D

1:

We watch ourselves destroy the world.
But we just can't seem to face it.
How can we not think at all.
We own this place together, right
But we just can seem to share it.
How can we not care at all.
Are we gonna be the ones to act.

CH:

Are we gonna be the ones to act.
Can you please make someone listen.
If you try I will try too.
Are we gonna be the ones to act.
Or can you please make someone listen.
If you try I will try too.

2:

We're not sustainable at all
But we just can seem to face it
How can we ignore it all.
With urgency will we react
Or can't we just seem to feel it
How can we not sense at all
Are we gonna be the ones to act.

CH:

Are we gonna be the ones to act.
Can you please make someone listen.
If you try I will try too.
Are we gonna be the ones to act.
Or can you please make someone listen.
If you try I will try too.

3:

In time of change we need to act
But we just can't understand it
How can ignorance grow tall
Are you the one to raise your voice
Or have we refrained from action
How can we not care at all.
Are we gonna be the ones to act.

CH:

Are we gonna be the ones to act.
Are we gonna be the ones to act.
Can you please make someone listen.
If you try I will try too.
Are we gonna be the ones to act.
Or can you please make someone listen.
If you try I will try too.
Are we gonna be the ones to act.
